3. GENERAL BUSINESS

A. To discuss and take possible action under the City water management plan, or to discuss and take other actions as necessary regarding drought conditions

City Council, City Manager Jane Bais DiSessa and Acting City Attorney Lena McClelland discussed the Water Management Plan and the Brighton Municipal Code Section 13-4-180 regarding the declaration of drought stages.

Thomas Kendall, Brighton. Mr. Kendall is representing the Bromley Park HOA asked how this will affect the homeowners in an HOA and expressed concern with the builders placing more parkways in the City that require water and maintenance.

Nancy Besaw, Brighton. Ms. Besaw expressed concern that citizens need to be notified before water restrictions or water rate increases can be implemented.

Motion by Mayor Pro Tem Johnston, seconded by Councilmember Pollack, to temporarily direct the City Manager to not be able to declare drought restrictions without prior City Council approval until such time that City Council is able to meet to discuss this matter further and that this be added to the agenda on Tuesday, June 22, 2021. Motion passed by the following vote:

Aye: 4 - Mayor Pro Tem Johnston, Councilmember Cushing, Councilmember Pollack, and Councilmember Watts
