

Brighton Cultural Arts Commission

Minutes June 2, 2021

The meeting opened by Wilma Rose at 11:40 a.m.

Present: Wilma Rose, Floy Timmerman, Kris Jordinelli, Tessa Davis and Stef Brown. Absent: Elaine Rowe, Gary Montoya, Sandie Mackenzie, Ed Hawkins, David Gallegos.

Approval of Minutes: Kris moved to approve the minutes and Floy seconded. All in favor.

New Business: Summerfest Participation is needed. Wilma asked for volunteers. Several people will be out of town on this date and are not available to work a shift. Kris will help in the morning and Andrea the youth representative from the Public Art Committee and other BPAC members will help in the afternoon. David has requested 750 pamphlets showcasing the public art in Brighton to be printed and handed out.

End of the Month Budget Report: No report.

Continuing Business:

- Lodging Tax - Staff person from the city left.
- SCFD - No report.
- Public Art Committee - Gary Wardle worked on the wording for the plaques that will be placed on the new sculptures.

David printed brochures that we plan pass out at a shared booth with BCAC for the upcoming city events; Summerfest, Art in the Park, City BBQ and Harvesfest. Zac at the city is working on our art presence on the city website to display QR codes on each piece of public art in the city and we plan to have the codes printed in the pamphlets as well.

We have planned a retreat for Monday, June 21st from 9:30 -2:00 at the United Power community room.

- Service Awards Committee – no report.

Organization Updates:

Arts and Culture Office - No report.

Armory/Special Events - No report.

Downtown Partnerships - No report.

heART of Brighton - No report

Main Street Creatives - Stef reported that MSC will start the Quarterly Artists salons on June 24th. Classes are starting again and we have workshops planned but not specific dates yet.

Lodging Tax Advisory Committee - No report.

Eye 4 Art - No report

Brighton Youth Commission - Tessa spoke about SPEAK week which was held in person this year with Covid precautions in place. So far there is no information on the youth summit.

Reports – Chairman, no report. Members, no report. Staff, no report. City Council, Kris reported that the council approved two leases at their last meeting and that council members are supportive of the arts in downtown Brighton.

Motion to Adjourn: Kris moved to adjourn. Tessa seconded. All in favor.