am the legal rightful owner of the Object(s) described below. I have full power and authority to enter into this agreement and the right to convey title, and interest in, including all copyrights, both common law and statutory, which I may possess in said materials.

Description of Object (continue on back if needed)

I acquired the Object on or about _____ (date of acquisition) by way of _____

I wish to give, grant, assign and convey to the City of Brighton, Colorado/ Brighton Historic Preservation Commission for its benefit and for such use as it may determine and direct, all my rights, title and interest in and to the Object described above.

A Deed of Gift documents the patron's donation, acceptance of the object(s) into the museum collection and declares the museum's permanent custody of the object(s).

Additionally, you agree, when you sign the gift agreement, you transfer legal ownership of the physical and/or digital materials you donate. Ownership of intellectual property rights (primarily copyright, but including trademarks and patent rights) may also be legally transferred by the deed of gift.

I have read and understand the conditions outlined above of this Deed of Gift. I agree that the Object will be made available for research on an unrestricted basis, subject only to those restrictions that may be specified below.

Signature of Donor

The Brighton Historic Preservation Commission is not permitted to appraise the monetary value of a gift. Please contact your tax accountant or attorney about this possibility. The archivist may be able to provide you with a list of local manuscript appraisers who can (for a fee) make monetary appraisals. It is up to you, as the donor, to arrange and pay for any such appraisal.

The City of Brighton, Colorado/Brighton Historic Preservation Commission accepts the above property subject to the conditions noted above.
